Message from Vicar Rev. Jyothish Sam

Dearly beloved in Christ

Greetings in the name of our Almighty God

This is the time for more Prayer and spiritual power, because now a days most of our people are worried about their job security and future. So we should spend more time with our God of possibilities. We have no idea about our future. But Almighty God has a specific plan for us. Trust in Him. He is the solution for all our problems. Our tears are more valuable and precious in the mighty hands of our Lord.

As we all know we are entered in to the last quarter of the year 2017. We should thank God for the glorious providence towards us. These days we are very busy with various programmes conducted by our church and organizations. We have more chance to hear the fruitful word of God through our conventions. Our family day and first Holy communion service will be held on 27 october. I wish the blessings of our Lord be with our children those who are preparing first Holy Qurbana. May God help them to participate meaningfully and guide them in their future.

Christian families are supposed to be the basic units of the Kingdom of heaven on earth. In the biblical perspective marriage is not a contract created by man and woman, but it is a covenantal relationship with God the creator. So we must understand the sacredness of the sacrificial marital love which is unique and everlasting.

Also I congratulate our children and teachers who got high score and eligible to receive exellency certificate in the teachers exam and birudh exam conducted by the Sunday school Samajam.

I am very happy to congratulate our members Mrs Sheela Philipose [MD, Doha beauty centre] Mr. Pulimoottil Chacko Thomas [MD, Horizon group] and for receiving Golden Achievement Award 2017 in Doha. This is a reward for their business excellences charitable activities and this is an appreciation of their entrepreneurship and social service. May God bless them more to give remarkable contributions to our church and society that will be a blessing to the poor and needy.

Christmas season is ahead us. St. Augustine says "The Son of God became the Son of Man so that the Son of men could become the Son of God". There is a saying that Jesus is like a software. He enters in our lives, scans our problems, edit our tensions, downloads solutions and delete our worries.

So be happy with our savior.

1. It is an independent Joy

Many people believe happiness depends on circumstances, but Jesus gives a joy that does not depend on external circumstances

2. It is a resultant Joy

Many people make the pursuit of happiness the energy of their existence. Jesus gives a joy that results from a service to Him.

3. It is an abiding Joy

Many people search for short lived happiness. but Jesus gives an ever lasting Joy.

Jesus alone can provide a joy that fulfills every part of our existence.

WE WISH YOU ALL A JOYFUL CHRISTMAS SEASON

With love and Prayers

Message from Rev. George John

Dearly Beloved in Christ,

Greetings in the name of our lord and saviour Jesus Christ.

I am very glad to write another message in our Immanuel Doothen in the new volume of October – December 2017. In this volume of the Immanuel Doothen we are reaching the last quarter of this year 2017 and preparing to receive the New Year 2018. We don't know how many of we can enter in to this New Year. But one thing we can know that our God is merciful Lord and with this mercy which we receiving from above in our life we can enter in to this New Year. Let us bow our heads and close our eyes before the Lord and pray that "Lord have mercy on us".

After the annual vacation all parish members are came from their native places and all are enjoyed their vacation in their home country and places and back with joy and vigor. The new term of the present academic year is begun after the long vacation and our kids are ready to go for school in this new term and preparing for their examination with their routine school life. Parish life is again started with busy schedule and the forth coming programmes. The parents in their home country and places were enjoyed their children's presence and company with in their loneliness. In the midst of this one question is coming from my mind that how many of you spend meaningful time with your parents? Or you people enjoyed your time with your family by visiting different places in and around the places of your home countries? Anybody spend quality time with your children to visit any mission field of the church or any destitute home which were run by our church? These questions are very relevant in our personal life as well as in our spiritual life.

Two of our parish members Mrs. Sheela Philipose and Mr. Thomas Pulimoottil received Golden achievement awards, Doha first edition 2017. Appreciate their efforts in the field of their business and may God bless them in the future programmes.

In Psalm 41:1 says that "Blessed is he who has regard for the weak".

Care for the fellow human beings:

God has created human being with greater freedom. Freedom involves providing full opportunity to all creatures to grow in its full stature. Any obstacle to the growth of a person or a creature is to be negated from its context. God has given us enough talents, health and wealth. These blessings are to be shared for the growth and development of another person. Giving to the needy is not to do the acts of righteousness. Jesus Christ taught us "do it in secret", reward will follow from God at right time.

Fellowship of brotherhood:

Ministry of empowering the weak is another vision of responsible Christian life. The basic of this great virtue is love. A Christian faith accompanied by action to the needy is valid, otherwise faith is dead. We are not guests in this world. But every Christian is a host to others, especially those who are needy and weak.

Equality to all:

We are to confirm equal opportunity and justice to all our fellow beings. Charity is not only the remedy to raise the fellow being, but also to give a permanent solution for their problems are needed today. When we give charity to the people it should be given from the bottom of the heart. Then only it will be work out in the life of the fellow human beings and in the life of the person those who giving the charity. The measure of our charity is not in the quantity we give, but it is the intention of our heart.

Let us examine ourselves that how our life is going on? Are we really committing our life in the hands of Jesus Christ? Or do we playing a double game in the sight of the lord especially in the church and in the society? Are we ready to share our resources with our fellow human being and the society for the well-being of the sick and needy? Do we really love our church, sacraments and fellowship we receiving from here? Let us examine ourselves and re – dedicate our life in the hands of almighty Lord.

May God bless you all. Wishing you a Happy Christmas With love and prayers.

Yours in His Service

Rev. George John

The Holy Qurbana (The Holy Communion)

The night on which our Lord was betrayed he ate the bread and drank the wine of the Passover and gave them to his disciples "Take, eat and drink". This command forms the words of institution of the Holy Qurbana.

The first record of it in the scripture comes in 1 Corinthians 11:23-30. The three gospel writers Matthew, Mark and Luke also have written about the institution of the Lords Supper. Though John describes this he has not mentioned about our Lord's special blessing of the bread and wine. But there are those who teach that the talk and description in John 6 is in anticipation of the Last supper.

The names for the Holy Qurbana

1. Qurbana is the accepted word in the Syrian Church. The meaning of the word is a gift or offering.
2. Lord's Supper: This holy sacrament was instituted at the time when the Lord had his supper with the disciples. There is in Qurbana the idea that we supper with the Lord and he offers himself to us as our food.
3. The Holy Sacrament: The word sacrament is used to include all sacraments. In the Anglican liturgy the Lord's Supper is referred to as the Holy Sacrament. The Qurbana is an occasion in which we enter into communion with the Lord and dedicate ourselves to him.
4. Eucharist: Eucharist is a word that has come from the Greek word Eucharistio which means thanksgiving.

The gospel writers have said that the Lord took bread and wine and 'and gave thanks'. The praise for the experience of redemption as a result of our Lord's glorious death on the cross, is reflected in the communion service.

5. The Mass: This is the word, the Roman Catholic Church uses for Qurbana. It does not have any meaning on its own. It has come from "Ite Missa Este". Today it means the offering that is Qurbana.

6. The Holy Communion: In Qurbana, the Christian believers enter into communion with Christ as well as with one another.

The answer to the question as to why the Qurbana was instituted is to be found in the context in which it was formed. Christ instituted it on the night in which he was to be taken away from his disciples. He instituted it as a visible sign and assurance of his real and spiritual presence even though he was going to be taken away physically. Just as we need material-food-for our physical body we need Jesus Christ for our spiritual sustenance.

The Qurbana – for Whom?

There are those who think that the Qurbana is the food for the holy people. Those who are perfect in holiness do not need Qurbana. When we hear that "These Holy things are given to holy people". We may come to think it is only for the holy. What is the response to it? "Holy is the one Father, Holy is the only Son. And Holy is the one Holy Spirit. Bless O Lord."

That is: The priest says that God the Trinity alone has this holiness. The Church invites us to find our anchor on the holiness of those God.

There are those who think that the Qurbana is offered and received for the redemption from sin and the Qurbana is for sinners. What given redemption is the supreme sacrifice of the Christ and his death on the cross alone-We partake of the Qurbana to make us one with the experience of that supreme sacrifice, reminding us of Christ's death on the cross and his suffering. The Holy Qurbana is for those who repent, confess their sins and wish to live in oneness with Christ. It is for those who wish to make Jesus their spiritual sustenance. It is for those sinners who repent and wish to lead a holy life.

The Teachings about the Holy Qurbana

St. Paul says: "for we being many are one bread and one body; For we are all partakers of that one bread" (1 Cor. 10: 16, 17). He teaches that the Holy Qurbana denotes the unity and oneness of the Christian Church. But the experience is that it has caused split and division in the Christian Church. It is the insistence on the teachings about the Qurbana that causes this disunity.

The main cause of dispute is the interpretation of our Lord's words of institution of the Qurbana. How must the Lord's words "This is my body" and "This is my blood" be interpreted? Shall we take them literally or figuratively? What is the association of bread and wine with the body and the blood? It is in the answer to those questions that there is much difference of opinion.

Apart from transubstantiation, remembrance and sign, Christ presence all throughout the service etc. there are many other teachings in other Churches: they are receptionism for those who believe: There is virtualism experiencing of Christ's qualities: there is spiritual presence. A writer called Forsyth has formulated a teaching that is worthy of respect. When someone receives them as God's gifts, he/she turns them in to the path and means of giving himself/herself to the Church. Our Church has not officially accepted a teaching about Qurbana. But here are two statements generally accepted. The Liturgy Committee report of Malayalam era 102: (1) During the Holy Qurbana, Christ gives himself to the believers and they experience him. The Church does not insist on or reject any of the following teachings: (1) The body and the blood of Christ become present amidst people during worship as sanctified bread and wine; (2) There is no such presence. But our Church rejects the teachings of transubstantiation and localization.

"We believe that during the Holy Qurbana the Lord gives himself to us and we enter into communion with him, whether as symbol of the bread and wine, the believer spiritually experiencing some presence" (Joint Statement 1955).

In the Holy Qurbana we remember Christ's death on the Cross and become one with his suffering and with his supreme sacrifice. We enter into communion with Christ as well as with one another. We commit ourselves to him and prepare the path for his coming and wait for him.
